In Memoriam

Last April, the faculty and students of Jamaica Plain High School were deeply saddened by the sudden death of Miss Marion Chesley. By this loss we have been deprived of a teacher unusually devoted to the training of reliable, active, intelligent, and cultural citizens.

Her experiences as a student and as a teacher laid a firm foundation for her successful career. A graduate of our school, Boston Normal School, and Radcliffe College, Miss Chesley taught for several years at East Boston High School before returning to her Alma Mater as head of the History Department. Here, in her classroom and in the plays and pageants which she produced, she manifested not only a scholar's historical background, but also a keen interest in music, art, and literature.

In deep appreciation of her contributions to our school, we fondly dedicate our 1957 Yearbook to Miss Marion Chesley.

J. E.

A Word

To the Class of 1957,

May I congratulate you and wish you long and happy lives. You are about to take your place in the world of higher education or industry at a very promising period of our country's history. In this you are very fortunate, but to you it is also a challenge.

If you plan to further your education, and I hope the number will be large, your opportunities for success will never be greater. If you enter industry, success, too, will be yours if you have learned the habit of industry while here in school. If you can couple a willingness to work with a reputation for high moral character, then you will achieve the goals you will have set for yourselves.

I was pleased to observe that you dedicated this Yearbook to the memory of the late Miss Marion Chesley, former Head of the History Department. It was my good fortune to be closely associated with Miss Chesley long before I became the Head Master of this school. Her sterling qualities were well known to me, and the high regard I had for her was enhanced when I saw her fine influence on the pupils of this school.

In wishing you success and happiness for the future, I can do no better than to recommend that you model your lives by the wonderful example set by Miss Chesley.

1954-1957

September '54 was a memorable occasion for us. It was the start of a real high school life, and we began by getting lost! Back in our homerooms, the teachers bravely tried to explain the mass or mess of symbols on our program cards. Along with this confusion were the "A," "B," "C" schedules. Lunch was our most enjoyable period--if you could just get through the line to eat. It seems Seniors had top priority. Then, too, there was the key to our own little iron cell if you could only match the two. Trying to find classrooms was some ordeal. To ask a Senior was to find yourself at the other end of school exactly opposite your destination. The misconduct slips, to say nothing of deficiencies, were all new to us. So was biology. That delightful biology, made more enjoyable (?) by aged vintages of frogs, produced many squeals and upset stomachs, especially before and after lunch. After the girls enjoyed their five minutes of squealing, they then got down to work. Meanwhile, Senior-Junior assemblies remained unsolved as we underwent solitary confinement in our homerooms.

One of the first activities open to us as Sophomores was the Key Club dance at the "Y." Arriving at the dance, many of us stowed ourselves away in corners watching our more adventurous classmates having a good time. We were still wary of those upper-classmen. By the end of the year, feeling more adventurous, we entered the bowling tournament when it rolled around. Now we felt at ease and we left our Sophomore year much happier and more confident, anticipating our chances as Juniors.

September '55 we came back a little more learned, a little less leery of Seniors. Our ability in sneaking in just before the tardy bell was amazing. New styles were noticeable. For the girls, it was knee sox and new boy friends. For the boys, it was mouse traps and white bucks--which the girls had adopted already. The hockey team "brought home the bacon" in the form of the District Championship. The baseball team "had a ball" that year winning the Championship of the Boston District League and being selected for the State Tour. We had Championship Teams!!! These teams made us strut around with great pride. That year typewriters began to click. Other things began to click: the Clarion staff, the Chemistry club, bowling teams, football, and dances. Induction into the National Honor Society was a memorable occasion, especially since a large number of our class was admitted. The high point of the year, however, was the Fashion Show held in May. Many Junior boys were models, as well as the girls. The boys surely wowed the audience; we hadn't realized till then what good looking specimens of manhood were parading around school. The Seniors had a Christmas Party, but I think more of us attended it.

"HAUGHTY SENIORS!" That's the way we came back September '56. What a year of happiness and sadness! When the election of class officers came, the teachers just gave up and waited for the day to pass; more time was spent on this election than on our home-lessons. We were active in all our clubs and on all our teams. We had the experience of writing for our school magazine, "The Clarion," and setting up our Yearbook. The Key Club did well raising money for scholarships and for Kiwanis. Our teachers helped us answer questions such as: Do I have enough points to graduate? How can I make them up? What college should I attend? Can I apply for a scholarship? A big help to us was the library, otherwise known to the seniors as C.R.C.H.A.---Consultation Room for the Combined Homelsson Appeal.

Of course, your last year involves money for your class ring, Yearbook pictures, class banquet, and, of course, "THE PROM." But it is worth every cent when you walk across that stage on graduation night to receive that precious little document embodying all the laughs and tears of our three years at old J. P. We will have finished, perhaps, the happiest days of our lives: "J. P. DAYS."

Legal Notices

We, the class of 1957, having passed all sanity, loyalty, and health tests, despite rumors to the contrary, do hereby publish this as our last will and testament:

To Mr. Casey, we leave sincerest gratitude for tolerating us during our years at J.P.H.S.

To Miss Mullin, we leave a modern-equipped office where she may cope with the problems of all Senior classes.

To Miss Casey and Mr. Gilligan, we leave our last week's pay.

To the Seniors, we leave, until we meet again, a standing invitation to return to J.P.H.S.

To the Juniors, we leave the Senior lunch room tables and an opportunity to be as good as the class of '57.

To the Sophomores, we leave an elevator to get to the third floor.

To the one class of Freshmen, we leave an opportunity to get out before it's too late.

To Mr. Brickley, we leave the suggestion: "We may not be humorous, but we are certainly full of wit."

To Mr. O'Leary, we leave a bushel of apples for the seventh period.

To Mrs. Gleekman, we leave a certificate good for one year's modeling at Miss Simplicity.

To Mr. Landrigan, we leave ELVIS in hopes that he'll never forget his "ELVIS LOVIN'" history class.

To Mrs. Hurley, we leave a ton of cotton wool in which to wrap up our courageous athletes.

To Mr. Bond, we leave a prediction that the football team will have a winning season.

To Miss Kelly, we leave two compression heads and overdrive for her "souped-up" convertible.

To Mr. McGuckian, we leave two winged pucks that fly into the goal.

To Miss Donlan, we leave a Yearbook staff with brilliant ideas.

To Mr. Dugan, we leave a whistle to direct traffic in assemblies.

To Miss Hennessy, we leave just five little words: "PUT YOUR MIND ON IT."

To Mr. Buck, we leave mechanical men to collect for the Key Club.

To Mr. Mealy, we leave an easy chair while waiting for Mr. Wendler.

To Mr. Duffy, we leave the class that sets science back fifteen years.

To Miss Buckley, we leave a sign for the library: "QUIET."

To Miss O'Connell, we leave "Sh!! Madame."

To Mr. Best, we leave an umbrella to protect him from his drippy ceiling.

To Miss Driscoll, we leave her famous expression, "AHEM."

To Mr. Sullivan, we leave a contribution to the lunchroom, a big cheese.

To Miss Tombaugh, we leave a Floridarized 106.

To Miss Maguire, we leave a shiny red scooter to spin her from room to room.

To Miss Howe, we leave her own private switchboard to Purdy's.

To Miss Russell, we leave a Senior class that will not creak while bending.

To Colonel Murphy, we leave a cup of coffee, sparing him his daily trips.

To Miss O'Malley, we leave a handbook for her classes entitled, "How To Untangle A Bandage."

We the class of 1957, having passed all bar examinations except those of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, have on this day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, officially designate this to be our last will and testament.

JAMES L. DUFFY

MEMORIAL TROPHY

AWARDED TO

EDWARD J. QUINN '56

On May 15, 1956, the Jamaica Plain High School Alumni Association honored Coach James L. Duffy at its annual banquet. A memorial trophy was presented at this dinner to perpetuate the memory of our great teacher. This will serve as an inspiration to all aspiring young athletes.

From 1920-1945, Coach Duffy won the hearts of all young people at Jamaica Plain High with his love for boys and girls, his captivating personality, and last, but not least, his able sportsmanship. Win or lose, Mr. Duffy would always appear smiling, encouraging, portraying a truly living spirit in his heart.

Eddie Quinn, class of 1956, outstanding student and track star, heads the list on our new trophy. Good luck to future winners! May Coach Duffy's spirit continue to permeate the hallowed halls of Jamaica Plain High.

FORMAL WEAR SPECIALISTS CUMMINS MEN'S STORE MEN'S SUITS FURNISHINGS

A black and white illustration showing a storefront for "CUMMINS MEN'S STORE". Above the entrance, signs read "FORMAL WEAR SPECIALISTS" on the left, "CUMMINS MEN'S STORE" in large letters in the center, and "MEN'S SUITS FURNISHINGS" on the right. Below the signs, there are two rows of men's suits and tuxedos displayed in windows. The suits are shown from the side or back, some with ties. The overall style is mid-20th-century commercial art.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- Good starting salary with regular raises
- Pleasant work with other girls and young men
- Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.
